

WISSENSCHAFTLICHE ARBEITEN UND AUSGEWÄHLTE PRESSEARTIKEL

(April – Juni 2016)

zusammengestellt von Karl-Heinz Krämer

Dies ist ein Auszug aus dem [Literatur-Gesamtverzeichnis von Nepal Research]

Acharya, Bhanu Bhakta. 2016. Curbs on press freedom: Constitution drafters seriously misunderstood idea of press freedom, which differs from right to communication. The Kathmandu Post, 25 April 2016

Acharya, Sunil. 2016. Petroleum is passé: Those who insist that fossil fuels are required for development are living in the past. The Kathmandu Post, 17 June 2016

Adhikari, Devendra. 2016. Power Trade With India: A Long Way To Go. The Rising Nepal, 22 April 2016

Adhikari, Devendra. 2016. Sustainable energy for all: Can Nepal achieve it?. The Himalayan Times, 15 April 2016

Adhikari, Dharma. 2016. Breaking views: Nepali media, despite all its flaws, is the only institution that can keep guard over government branches and private enterprises. The Himalayan Times, 14 June 2016

Adhikari, Dharma. 2016. Mediterranean tremors: A coherent policy on integrating all forms of media, including platforms like internet, mobile and social networks is the need of the hour. República, 31 May 2016

Adhikari, Dharma. 2016. Nepal in Chinese press: That it takes extraordinary events in Nepal to earn an opinion piece in Chinese papers is clear from the lone editorial published in China Daily. República, 5 April 2016

Adhikari, Dipendra. 2016. In memoriam: Bhandari redefined traditional role of communist parties, moving them from bullets to ballots. República, 16 May 2016

Adhikari, Jagannath. 2016. Grinding on: People are fed up with the frequent changes in government without any purpose. The Kathmandu Post, 18 May 2016

Adhikari, Jagannath. 2016. Infrastructure and development: Fast-track road can be completed on time if the political parties do not interfere. The Kathmandu Post, 3 June 2016

Adhikari, Jagannath. 2016. Kabul incident: It is not only the Nepali state but a host of stakeholders that are responsible for the tragedy. The Kathmandu Post, 24 June 2016

Adhikari, Jagannath. 2016. Road kill: Road accidents in Nepal often do not get the same attention in comparison to other accidents or deaths resulting therefrom. The Kathmandu Post, 19 April 2016

Adhikari, Renu. 2016. Joining hands: SAARC leaders should work together to ensure wellbeing of their citizens going abroad as migrant workers. The Kathmandu Post, 3 May 2016

Adhikari, Suman. 2016. Too scared to talk: Conflict victims face a number challenges and receive threats when giving testimony. The Kathmandu Post, 14 June 2016

Albrechtsen, Anne-Brigitte. 2016. The girl story: Maya's story shows how to go beyond describing the tough reality, to changing it. República, 18 May 2016

Amnesty International / Human Rights Watch / International Commission of Jurists. 2016. Nepal: End Intimidation of Human Rights Commission Interference by Prime Minister Deliberate Attempt to Stifle Independence. AI/HRW/ICJ, 14 April 2016

Ansari, Mohna. 2016. Human wrongs: The national human rights institution is being criticised for raising the issues of human rights violations. The Kathmandu Post, 12 April 2016

Arjyal, Hemant. 2016. Chaotic Kathmandu: It was Rip Van Winkle-level of shock to learn that there are 20 municipalities in the valley. República, 26 April 2016

Arjyal, Hemant. 2016. Dhangadi misadventure: It is fortunate that it had a happy ending, even if the act itself was unbecoming of proper airmanship. The Kathmandu Post, 17 April 2016

Aryal, Trailokya Raj. 2016. China outwits India: Unless the Indian government realizes its folly and embarks on course correction China will replace India as the most influential actor in Nepal. República, 24 May 2016

Aryal, Trailokya Raj. 2016. Is democracy indispensable? Representation and other rights that in our context are abstract ideals can wait; Rule of law and good governance cannot. República, 6 April 2016

Aryal, Trailokya Raj. 2016. Three options for Nepal: King Mahendra's fear that in an agrarian economy like ours parties depend on foreigners for money to contest elections wasn't unfounded. República, 10 May 2016

Atreya, Ajita. 2016. Reconstructing human capital: It is apparent that people opted out of the building regulations and placed themselves in harm's way. The Kathmandu Post, 13 May 2016

Atreya, Binod. 2016. Financial inclusion: Way forward. The Himalayan Times, 14 June 2016

Awale, Sujata. 2016. Storage projects a must to reduce power shortage. The Himalayan Times, 1 May 2016

Awale, Sujata. 2016. What investors want?. The Himalayan Times, 5 June 2016

Awale, Sujata. 2016. Why Nepal exports unskilled workers? Government needs to do much more to ensure youth leaving the country as migrant workers have some training and skills. The Himalayan Times, 15 May 2016

Baidya, Ananta R.. 2016. Reconstructing Kasthamandap: Using modern engineering principles while maintaining heritage ambiance is important. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Bajracharya, Barun. 2016. For the most vulnerable: Need for cash based programming. The Himalayan Times, 5 June 2016

Baral, Aditya. 2016. A three-way tie: Playing one neighbour against another or inciting nationalism by inflammatory speeches would take us nowhere. The Kathmandu Post, 29 June 2016

Baral, Aditya. 2016. Look both ways: First turning towards the south and then the north during the crisis has harmed Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 15 April 2016

Baral, Biswas. 2016. 1950 revisited: Many Nepalis wrongly believe the 1950 treaty or the subsequent Letters of Exchange accompanying it provided for open border. República, 23 June 2016

Baral, Biswas. 2016. China express: The argument that the Himalayas offer the best defense against China is contradicted by rapid expansion of Chinese rail lines in Tibetan plateau. República, 9 June 2016

Baral, Biswas. 2016. International interest: When we seem happy to operate in a foreign policy vacuum, why feign surprise when foreign powers set the agenda for us?. República, 7 April 2016

Baral, Lok Raj. 2016. Through the envoy's eye: Rasgotra's diplomatic odyssey reveals how individuals and their understanding matter in conducting foreign policy. The Kathmandu Post, 20 June 2016

Baral, Lok Raj. 2016. Triangular connectivity: Nepal should try to gain the trust of both India and China by resolving domestic issues. The Kathmandu Post, 20 April 2016

Barry, Ellen. 2016. Not-very-enlightened spat over Buddha's childhood home: The archaeological tug of war has rumbled for more than a century, but with Buddhist history becoming serious business, the debate has taken on new urgency. The Kathmandu Post, 4 June 2016

Basnet, Bholan Man Singh. 2015. Rice science for farmers: Successful technologies. The Himalayan Times, 30 June 2016

Basnyat, Ayushma. 2016. Deprived of a childhood. República, 1 April 2016

Basnyat, Ayushma. 2016. Periodic blues. República, 3 June 2016

Basnyat, Binoj. 2016. Thoughts on security: Nepal needs a strategy to ensure the survival of the state as an independent physical entity. The Kathmandu Post, 20 May 2016

Basnyat, Binoj. 2016. Times are different: Nepal's political stability and national security are of international significance; Political will to amend the constitution to address the legitimate demands of the Madhes-based political parties is required. The Kathmandu Post, 19 April 2016

Basyal, Tula Raj. 2016. Macroeconomic risks: The budget could destabilise the macro economy and undermine the country's development efforts. The Kathmandu Post, 1 June 2016

Bhandari, Padam. 2016. Agricultural development Linked to enterprise. The Himalayan Times, 20 June 2016

Bhandari, Ram Kumar. 2016. Too scared to complain: The shadow of the perpetrators has fallen on the transitional justice commissions. The Kathmandu Post, 10 May 2016

Bhandari, Ram Kumar. 2016. Transitional justice: The notion that a process that excludes victims will address their needs is a fantasy. The Kathmandu Post, 28 June 2008

Bhandari, Ram Kumar / Robins, Simon. 2016. The forgotten fighters: Former Maoist combatants must be politically integrated so that they see the Nepali state as theirs as much any other citizen does. The Kathmandu Post, 31 May 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. A Diplomatic Wakeup Call. The Rising Nepal, 8 April 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. Bringing Nepali Congress On Board. The Rising Nepal, 22 April 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. In The Morass Of Political Indiscretion. The Rising Nepal, 27 May 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. Refurbishing Nepal's Diplomatic Standing. The Rising Nepal, 10 June 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. Trans-Himalayan Railway, Fiction or Feasibility?. The Rising Nepal, 20 May 2016

Bharadwaj, Narad. 2016. University education in shambles. The Rising Nepal, 1 April 2016

Bhattarai, Baburam. 2016. 'We need to be cautious of clash of big powers' interests in Nepal'. Interview. The Himalayan Times, 5 June 2016

Bhattarai, Baburam. 2016. Commitments of New Force Nepal: It's a political movement that will build on the latest achievements in the realms of knowledge and science. The Kathmandu Post, 6 May 2016

Bhattarai, Dinesh. 2016. Democracy in peril: Nepal is witnessing a systematic erosion of democratic values at the hands of the leaders who are democratically elected. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Bhattarai, Dinesh. 2016. Neighborhood watch: The worldwide attention on India and China puts Nepal's difficult geopolitics on the global radar. República, 7 May 2016

Bhattarai, Dinesh. 2016. Populist pandering: When leaders see the democratic process as a threat to their functioning and self interest, they embrace populist measures. República, 25 May 2016

Bhattarai, Gaurav. 2016. Prosperity bridge: Geographical complexities with China and political complexities with India affect Nepal's 'transit diplomacy'. The Kathmandu Post, 14 June 2016

Bhattarai, Manoj. 2016. Saving lives: A surge in the number of hospitals, medical schools and medical graduates has done little to help patients in rural Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 31 May 2016

Bhusal, Lok Nath. 2016. Social Protection In Budget. The Rising Nepal, 7 June 2016

Bishwakarma, Kirpa. 2016. Still talking: Caste-based discrimination and untouchability persist in different parts of Nepal despite efforts to promote equality. The Kathmandu Post, 15 June 2016

Bista, Isha. 2016. All hail Madam President: After becoming the first female president of Nepal, she also became the first person for whom we stop walking and pay our respects. República, 13 May 2016

BK, Ratna. 2016. Caste of characters: In Hindu society, many of the problems are a result of caste and not merely class. The Kathmandu Post, 5 April 2016

Budhathoki, Shak Bahadur. 2016. A bad lesson: Inclusion of real guardians in the SMC and barring party politics in school need effective enforcement. The Kathmandu Post, 12 April 2016

Budhathoki, Shobhakar. 2016. Subtle art: Our security agencies continue to carry out their duties under the organizational structures and mandates they had during the conflict. República, 11 May 2016

Chambers, Mike. 2016. They die, we go home: I often hear folks justify the low wages of Sherpa by comparing them to the national average wage in Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 1 April 2016

Chamlagain, Deepak. 2016. Kathmandu rocks: Geologically, the valley, composed of fragile thick sediments, is analogous to a bowl of jelly. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Chaudhary, Basant K.. 2016. Heritage for nation building: Social and political scientists have established the fact that heritage is the best means to strengthen awareness of national identity among citizens. República, 18 April 2016

Chaudhary, Randhir. 2016. Initiate the investigation: The state should probe the killings that took place during the Tarai unrest, all of them. The Kathmandu Post, 7 June 2016

Dahal, Atindra. 2016. Disgraceful deviation: Despite historical changes in the country, people have sensed no change in their everyday lives. The Kathmandu Post, 12 June 2016

Dahal, Atindra. 2016. Nation building: Disgraceful deviation. The Himalayan Times, 9 June 2016

Dahal, Madan Kumar. 2016. Untapped potential: The visit of Nepali prime minister to China has ushered in a new era of cooperation between the two countries. República, 21 April 2016

Dahal, Prajwal Kumar. 2016. Safer schools: Children are still inside buildings not knowing when the roof would collapse. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Dahal, Shyam. 2016. Economics over politics: As far as the memory serves, the economy has always been sacrificed at the altar of politics; The result is here for all to see. República, 14 April 2016

Devkota, Abhinawa. 2016. The 'foreign' scarecrow: Our political leaders are taking a leaf from the rulebook of their predecessors to hold people on a tight leash. The Kathmandu Post, 4 June 2016

Devkota, Khim Lal. 2016. Where the money goes: Political leaders' main concern is about their constituencies, which leads to a disproportionate distribution of budget. The Kathmandu Post, 11 May 2016

Devkota, Khim Lal. 2016. Who will do what: A clear division of responsibilities among different levels of government is essential. The Kathmandu Post, 18 April 2016

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Bagale, Shiba / Basnet, Yam Bahadur. 2016. Technical education: Academic courses should be based on the needs, interests and demands of the students. The Kathmandu Post, 13 April 2016

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Bagale, Shiba / Devkota, Shreeya. 2016. Woe is us: Nepal is stuck in poverty while the rest of the world has taken a great leap forward. The Kathmandu Post, 24 May 2016

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Chulagain, Ramesh / Dhakal, Dikendra Lal. 2016. Advertising of schools: Is it good for consumers?. The Himalayan Times, 30 May 2016

Devkota, Shree Prasad / Dhakal, Dikendra Lal. 2016. Irrational practice: Many women in rural Nepal are forced to live like animals due to rigid cultural and social traditions. The Kathmandu Post, 2 June 2016

Dhungel, Surya. 2016. Federalizing Nepal: Nepal is currently confronting a big challenge of streamlining both social and constitutional transformation even after seven months of promulgation of the federal Constitution. New Spotlight, 6 May 2016

Dixit, Ajaya. 2016. Rethinking governance: Stories of Nepali families devastated by earthquakes, floods, droughts, and other hazards will proliferate in the future. The Kathmandu Post, 17 May 2016

Dixit, Niranjana Mani. 2016. Something is rotten. The Kathmandu Post, 29 May 2016

Duwadi Khanal, Dutta Shree. 2016. Making it work: Timely presentation of the budget will hopefully lead to timely execution of development projects. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Ford, Liz. 2016. Expanding horizons beyond marriage: Child marriage in Nepal is denying girls education and the country a boost in GDP. The Kathmandu Post, 21 May 2016

Gajurel, Sakun. 2016. A test of will: Working hand in hand and rebuilding this country for the better will slowly heal our wounds. The Kathmandu Post, 4 May 2016

Galimberti, Simone. 2016. Harnessing people's power: Nepal could have a National Volunteering Week to remind ourselves what citizens can do if they unite. The Kathmandu Post, 29 May 2016

Gangol, Pradeep. 2016. Energy independence through inter-dependence: Special focus on Indo-Nepal power trade. The Himalayan Times, 5 June 2016

Gautam, Devendra. 2016. Loosen the embrace: Symbols of unequal relations like the 1950 friendship treaty, the Koshi Barrage and the Khurdlotan Dam cannot be templates for Nepal-India ties in the 21st century. República, 1 June 2016

Gautam, Dipendra. 2016. Long hibernation: Many things to do. The Himalayan Times, 11 May 2016

Gautam, Dipendra. 2016. Madhesh blues: What to expect; The Constitution of Nepal has ensured reservation to deprived groups, women, Madhesis, indigenous people and the needy ones. How many Chepangs, Rauts, Muslims, Musahars, Rajbanshis have benefited?. The Himalayan Times, 21 June 2016

Gautam, Dipendra. 2016. Post-quake reconstruction: Capacity building, resilience must. The Rising Nepal, 6 April 2016

Gautam, Manish. 2016. One village, one doctor: Docs urge govt to upgrade facilities to maximise use; The govt will need around 3,900 students to deploy one doctor in each village. The Kathmandu Post, 12 June 2016

Gautam, Rajesh. 2016. Buddhist economics: It is worth pondering why Nepal could never take advantage of having a major religious site. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Gautam, Saugat. 2016. Information the key: Although its importance is not recognized in Nepal a strong information management system is vital in disaster response. República, 23 April 2016

Ghale, Shradha. 2016. The great divide: Why were discussions about relief and rebuilding being conducted in a language that was so removed from the lived experience of the most affected people?. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Ghimire, Binod. 2016. Leaving on a jet plane. The Kathmandu Post, 10 June 2016

Ghimire, Jeevan. 2016. Fighting malnutrition: We cannot expect young and undernourished mothers to give birth to healthy children. The Kathmandu Post, 10 June 2016

Ghimire, Jeevan. 2016. Health is wealth: While the government is unable to spend the entire health budget, people are languishing without proper healthcare. The Kathmandu Post, 26 April 2016

Ghimire, Sarin. 2016. A political jolt: After a few months of quiet, some major turmoil is brewing once more in Nepal's political corridors. The Kathmandu Post, 21 May 2016

Ghimire, Sarin. 2016. Old wine in a new bottle: An appealing prospect that is hollow from within, how long will people believe in Naya Shakti?. The Kathmandu Post, 17 June 2016

Gnawali, Shiba Datta. 2016. Constitution of Nepal: Implementation main task. The Himalayan Times, 19 April 2016

Gupta, Avinash. 2016. Dare to dream: Ocean-going ships and energy from the wind are not impossible if there is stability. The Kathmandu Post, 7 June 2016

Guragai, Dilli. 2016. Leave no child behind: We should always ask whether any legal, policy or program choice will benefit all children regardless of who they are and where they come from. República, 4 June 2016

Guragain, Mohan. 2016. Mellowed Maoists: Headed in all directions, will the former rebels find a clear ideological path for the masses to follow?. The Kathmandu Post, 12 June 2016

Guragain, Mohan. 2016. Order please: As the Madhesi parties plan their next movement, here is an appeal not to resort to violent tactics again. The Kathmandu Post, 15 April 2016

Guragain, Mohan. 2016. Successive failures: People have been promised prosperity by at least a dozen governments but development has been as elusive as ever. The Kathmandu Post, 25 May 2016

Gurubacharya, Binaj. 2016. Virtually no gov't rebuilding a year after Nepal quake. The Kathmandu Post, 23 April 2016

Gurung, Binit. 2016. The making of Amber: While India lost a precious talent, Nepal gained by welcoming Gurung. The Kathmandu Post, 19 June 2016

Gurung, Priyanka. 2016. Effective garbage management. República, 8 April 2016

Gurung, Priyanka. 2016. Mothers and their struggle to care. República, 1 April 2016

Gurung, Priyanka. 2016. Search for the lost trace: Even after 13 years, victims find themselves tangled in the ugly web of bureaucracy and power. República, 3 June 2016

Haass, Felix / Kurtenbach, Sabine / Strasheim, Julia. 2016. Flucht vor dem Frieden: Emigration aus Nachkriegsgesellschaften. GIGA Focus Global 2, Mai 2016

Hachhethu, Krishna. 2016. Ganatantrama rajtantrako chaya. Nagarik, 28 May 2016

Hamal, Chandra Jung. 2016. Rara National Park: Potential touristic hub. The Himalayan Times, 26 May 2016

Heuer, Marleen. 2016. Wasting talents: Lack of professional diversity can have adverse consequences on Nepal's society and economy. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Hudlow, Jonathan. 2016. A horrible business Trafficking has become a low-profit, high-risk enterprise, but traffickers are not aware of this. The Kathmandu Post, 28 June 2008

Human Rights Watch. 2016. Nepal: End intimidation of Human Rights Commission; Interference by Prime Minister deliberate attempt to stifle independence. Human Rights Watch, 14 April 2016

Husain, Waris. 2016. On Nepali constitution: The road to constitutionalism in Nepal is a long one, filled with dissent, litigation, amendments, and many more "best answers". República, 14 May 2016

Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre. 2016. Global Report on Internal Displacement. May 2016

International Crisis Group. 2016. Nepal's Divisive New Constitution: An Existential Crisis. Asia Report N°276 - 4 April 2016

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2016. Not so new: Bhattarai's initiative has shown some promising signs, but it is beset by significant challenges. The Kathmandu Post, 26 June 2016

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2016. Oli the dreamer: Excited and carried away by the flattery of his blind followers, Oli keeps generating fresh controversies. The Kathmandu Post, 29 May 2016

Jeevan, Jainendra. 2016. You are wrong Shyam Saran! Saran's observations are thoroughly one-sided and his statements are for the most part factually incorrect. The Kathmandu Post, 1 May 2016

Jha, Dipendra. 2016. Handle with care: The issue of provincial boundaries should be resolved first before calling local polls. The Kathmandu Post, 9 May 2016

Jha, Dipendra. 2016. It ain't interference: Nepali leaders welcome the support of the world community when it is in their interest. The Kathmandu Post, 8 April 2016

Jha, Kalpana. 2016. Lessons from Pakistan: A theocratic monolithic system drove a wedge between the state and the people. The Kathmandu Post, 10 April 2016

Jha, Mukesh. 2016. Where are the rights? Representatives from the marginalised communities are under pressure to conform to the norms. The Kathmandu Post, 6 May 2016

Jha, Nanu. 2016. As you sow: An infrastructural development programme is required to ensure quality seed supplies. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Jha, Nanu. 2016. Honey is not everything: Nepali bee-keepers have limited knowledge about international quality requirements. The Kathmandu Post, 16 June 2016

Jha, Roshan Kumar. 2016. Caste-based Discrimination Of Dalit Children. The Rising Nepal, 28 May 2016

Jha, Roshan Kumar. 2016. Right to a fair trial: No compromise. The Himalayan Times, 25 May 2016

Joshi, Supral Raj. 2016. Speaking in tongues: Although my native tongue is Nepal Bhasa, listening to the news in it feels like listening to a foreign language. The Kathmandu Post, 29 May 2016

K.C., Neha. 2016. Early childhood development: Importance of preschools. The Himalayan Times, 16 May 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. A downward trend: People like you and me who try to ape the lifestyle of developed countries are also to blame for the present economic situation. The Kathmandu Post, 6 May 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. An unforgettable year: The year will be remembered not just for the miseries but also for the opportunities that the government squandered. The Kathmandu Post, 22 April 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. Better Upbringing. The Rising Nepal, 3 May 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. Costly connections: Neither of the two—India and China—should ever be given the monopoly of trade in this country. The Kathmandu Post, 8 April 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. No laughing matter: Some of Prime Minister Oli's ideas may seem far-fetched now but they might come to fruition in the future. The Kathmandu Post, 20 May 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. Towards Greater Independence. The Rising Nepal, 10 May 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. Web Of Complexity. The Rising Nepal, 14 June 2016

K.C., Shyam. 2016. Who's Responsible?. The Rising Nepal, 24 May 2016

Kafle, Chandra Mani. 2016. End malaria for good: Number one threat. The Himalayan Times, 25 April 2016

Kainee, David. 2016. Funding corruption: Opponents of CDF argue that it breaches the democratic principle of separation of powers by conferring executive. República, 21 May 2016

Kainee, David. 2016. Seven wasted months: Oli's government neither talks with Madheshi parties nor is it keen on improving Nepal's strained relations with India. República, 6 June 2016

Kainee, David. 2016. Still trapped: Around 16,500 Nepalis, mostly women and children, have been trafficked from Nepal in the last two years alone. The Kathmandu Post, 5 May 2016

Kainee, David. 2016. Year of inaction: The performance of National Reconstruction Authority (NRA), which was established with much fan-fare, has been disappointing. República, 23 April 2016

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2016. Collective or cooperative: Forced collectivization of farming in communist countries resulted in reduced grain output and halved the livestock, creating famines. República, 24 May 2016

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2016. Mixed decade: Investment in agriculture has declined from 3.7 percent of government expenditure a decade ago to 2.6 percent today. República, 27 April 2016

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2016. Now implement it: Only a small segment of Nepali agriculture has been commercialized and agricultural productivity remains low. República, 2 June 2016

Kaini, Bhairab Raj. 2016. Tapping water: Most irrigation systems in Nepal are fed by small and medium rivers that depend on rains. República, 10 May 2016

Kandel, Bibek Raj. 2016. International climate finance: Direct access to Green Climate Fund will give government the liberty to spend on its priority areas. The Kathmandu Post, 16 May 2016

Kandel, Bibek Raj. 2016. Sunshine and clouds: Many of the energy initiatives in the budget are achievable, but power production requires structural reforms. The Kathmandu Post, 8 June 2016

Karki, Dinesh. 2016. Institutionalise fiscal decentralisation. The Himalayan Times, 19 June 2016

Karki, Hitesh. 2016. Country sans leaders: We have had too many position holders but not a single person who used the position as a platform to exercise leadership. República, 18 April 2016 República, 18 April 2016

Karki, Lok Man Singh. 2016. Nepal at crossroads: A roadmap to prosperity. The Himalayan Times, 3 April 2016

Karki, Rohit. 2016. Dangerous duet: The Doval-Rae doctrine wants assurance that naturalized citizenship holders in Nepal will get to become president and prime minister. República, 7 June 2016

Karki, Rohit. 2016. Survival vs sovereignty: In many ways sovereignty of weak states is directly linked to the security of their regimes. República, 16 May 2016

Khadka, Kahar Singh. 2016. Health inequality: Constitutional provisions do not mean much if they are not implemented. The Kathmandu Post, 15 May 2016

Khadka, Kahar Singh. 2016. Still a lot to learn: Reducing the disparity between public and private education should be the government's main concern. The Kathmandu Post, 14 June 2016

Khadka, Navin Singh. 2016. Environment unfriendly: There is a disturbing disconnect between Nepal's success in nature conservation and an indifferent political class. The Kathmandu Post, 15 April 2016

Khadka, Navin Singh. 2016. Poison packed: Crops are becoming toxic to withstand extreme weather conditions. The Kathmandu Post, 27 May 2016

Khadka, Navin Singh. 2016. Unfinished homework: The government and tourism industry fail to conduct risk studies recommended for major trekking regions. The Kathmandu Post, 1 April 2016

Khadka, Navin Singh. 2016. Whither forecast: While issuing early warning against floods remains a challenge, forecasting thunderstorms has emerged as another one. The Kathmandu Post, 24 June 2016

Khadka, Roshan. 2016. Enter the dragon: China won the hearts of Nepalis by promising to stand by Nepal in its darkest hour . The Kathmandu Post, 12 May 2016

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2016. Dream of a golden future: Fundamental reforms of the political parties are necessary if we are to ensure democracy and development. The Kathmandu Post, 22 June 2016

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2016. Nationalism and its discontents: Challenge of national integration grows as political power becomes centralised and decision-making opaque . The Kathmandu Post, 18 May 2016

Khanal, Ajaya Bhadra. 2016. Still pending: Local elections can institutionalise democratic processes or they can be a political tool. The Kathmandu Post, 6 April 2016

Khanal, Dilli Raj. 2016. Budget for next fiscal: Stumbling blocks and options . The Himalayan Times, 2 May 2016

Khanal, Dilli Raj. 2016. Envisioning Nepal 2030: Transformative strategies key. The Himalayan Times, 7 April 2016

Khanal, Geha Nath. 2016. Will it work? The policy provides subsidies to the poor and marginalized based on their identity cards. But first how will one obtain this card?. República, 16 June 2016

Khanal, Prashanta. 2016. Inclusive transport: Let the motorists pay for building urban highways and widening roads, not all of us . The Kathmandu Post, 10 May 2016

Khanal, Rupesh Raj. 2016. Globalisation In Nepal: Assessment Of Achievements And The Way Forward. The Rising Nepal, 28 May 2016

Kharel, Himalaya /Ayub, Mohammad / Sijapati, Bandita. 2016. Free-visa, free-ticket: Govt didn't consider all formal and informal institutions active in the migration process while formulating the policy. The Kathmandu Post, 2 May 2016

Kharel, Pranab / K.C., Gaurab. 2016. Rethinking law: The bureaucratic process of justice delivery is rather cumbersome as one is made to run from pillar to post. República, 17 May 2016

Kharel, Pranab / K.C., Gaurab. 2016. The missing link: The tendency to prioritize American and British sociologists has led to the marginalization of noted scholars from other countries. República, 19 April 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. CIAA: Coming of Age, Fast. CIAA: Coming of Age, Fast

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Education in Nepal: Always in Trial. The Rising Nepal, 12 April 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Futile Attempts To Disturb Development Process. The Rising Nepal, 10 May 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Jagaran: Awakening, The Foremost Duty Of Intellectuals. The Rising Nepal, 21 June 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Little Things Making Big Impacts. The Rising Nepal, 5 April 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Nation First, Or Else.... The Rising Nepal, 7 June 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Private Schools & TU Professors: Saga Of A Sweet/Sour Relation. The Rising Nepal, 3 May 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Put System In Place. The Rising Nepal, 14 June 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Revisiting Timeless Teachings Through 2560th Buddha Jayanti. The Rising Nepal, 24 May 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. The New Budget: Colourful Responses. The Rising Nepal, 31 May 2016

Khatry, Prem K.. 2016. Welcome Step In A Limbo. The Rising Nepal, 28 June 2008

Khatry, Ramesh. 2016. Minority report: Government should respect sentiments of minority groups in deciding national holidays. The Kathmandu Post, 17 May 2016

Khatry, Ramesh. 2016. Not really secular: In Nepal, no religion can claim to have its followers 'from time immemorial'. The Kathmandu Post, 10 April 2016

Koirala, Jib Raj. 2016. A new lease of life: Both the public and private sectors need to make effort to put readymade garment (RMG) policies into practice. The Kathmandu Post, 22 April 2016

Koirala, Kosh Raj. 2016. Whither nonalignment? The geostrategic rebalancing in the Asia Pacific region has put Nepal's long-held non-aligned foreign policy to test. República, 16 June 2016

Koirala, Naresh / Pandey, Naresh. 2016. A year after: Lessons not learned; A number of international experts visited Nepal after last year's. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Koirala, Prayash Raj. 2016. National Strategies Of Financial Education – Way Forward. The Rising Nepal, 10 June 2016

Koirala, Shekhar. 2016. From the opposition benches: The Madhesis are also Nepalis; the lens being used to look at the Madhes from Kathmandu must be changed. The Kathmandu Post, 31 May 2016

Kunwar, Niranjana. 2016. A crisis of care: Why is Nepal's education system so tattered?. The Kathmandu

Post, 11 June 2016

Kunwar, Niranjana. 2016. A history of interruptions: A look at a few different forces, political and otherwise, that continue to shape Nepal's educational landscape. The Kathmandu Post, 4 June 2016

Lal, C.K.. 2016. The chess players: Let me cheer Kanak, as the risk of the chessboard itself being upturned by the Authority is too high to be ignored. República, 2 May 2016

Lal, C.K.. 2016. Triumph of trickery: Ruling Oli-garchy is a continuation of socio-political reality of Nepal where Khas-Arya considers itself to be rightful owner and ultimate defender of purity of nation. República, 18 April 2016

Lal, C.K.. 2016. Yo Nepal ho! Beijing has begun to practice what can perhaps be termed the "Offer Diplomacy" even with its neighboring countries: Buy one, get one free; and buy now, pay later. República, 16 May 2016

Lama, Hari Man. 2016. International Buddhist Conference: Lumbini in the limelight. The Himalayan Times, 19 May 2016

Lama, Mahendra P.. 2016. Repositioning Nepal: Nepal has to believe that it is no longer the proverbial yam but an important regional player. The Kathmandu Post, 1 June 2016

Lama, Mahendra P.. 2016. United we stand: The real challenge in the Himalayan region is to make the literature on climate change accessible to public. The Kathmandu Post, 15 June 2016

Lamsal, Kritika. 2016. My autistic brother: Let us get on this road together to eliminate taboos associated with development disorders. The Kathmandu Post, 1 April 2016

Lohani, Prakash Chandra. 2016. The roving bandits: When those in power feel their tenure is short, the tendency is to make hay while the sun shines. The Kathmandu Post, 8 April 2016

Lohani, Prakash Chandra. 2016. Trilateral cooperation: We expect India and China to respect our concerns and let us to solve our problems on our own. The Kathmandu Post, 30 May 2016

Lohani, Sunita. 2016. Negligence at the wheel. The Himalayan Times, 14 May 2016

Lord, Austin / Sijapati, Bandita / Baniya, Jeevan / Chand, Obindra / Ghale, Tracy. 2016. Disaster, disability, & difference: A study of the challenges faced by persons with disabilities in post-earthquake Nepal. Social Science Baha

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Airy-fairy Announcements Won't Work. The Rising Nepal, 9 June 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Crouching Government And Strong Entrepreneurs!. The Rising Nepal, 30 June 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Dust, Dust, Everywhere. The Rising Nepal, 12 May 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Everything Is Fair In Politics!. The Rising Nepal, 19 May 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Implementation Of The Constitution. The Rising Nepal, 16 June 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Madhesi Protests: Immediate Resolution A Must. The Rising Nepal, 26 May 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Modus Operandi Of Government. The Rising Nepal, 5 May 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Out-Oliing Oli!. The Rising Nepal, 23 June 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Roads For Development. The Rising Nepal, 21 April 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Tent Life: A Case Of Heightened State Negligence. The Rising Nepal, 7 April 2016

Maharjan, Uttam. 2016. Will Reconstruction Pick Up Momentum?. The Rising Nepal, 28 April 2016

Mahat, Ram Sharan. 2016. Brewing fiscal anarchy: Budget sounds more like a compendium of aspirations rather than a credible plan backed by adequate budgetary allocation or sound justification.

The Kathmandu Post, 14 June 2016

Mahat, Ram Sharan. 2016. Politically possessed: Political instability and excessive politicisation are taking a toll on Nepal's development. The Kathmandu Post, 13 April 2016

Malla, Shrijan Bahadur. 2016. Investing in peacekeeping: Development of Birendra Peace Operations Training Center into a center of excellence could add new dimension to UN peacekeeping. República, 11 April 2016

Manandhar, Narayan. 2016. Corruption vs anti-corruption: Both bribe takers and givers may benefit from a transaction but it is society that suffers. The Kathmandu Post, 19 June 2016

Manandhar, Narayan. 2016. Men, women and corruption: Is it women's participation in politics that is reducing corruption or is higher corruption deterring women from entering politics?. The Kathmandu Post, 5 June 2016

Manandhar, Narayan. 2016. Tough going: Women politicians find themselves caught between the devil and the deep blue sea. The Kathmandu Post, 17 April 2016

Marasini, Ram Prasad. 2016. Teaching-learning process: A different approach. The Himalayan Times, 24 June 2016

Maskey, Mahesh. 2016. Political will, diplomatic proficiency key to profitable relations with China. Interview. The Kathmandu Post, 2 May 2016

Meyerhoffer, Sheri / Khan, Adil Ali. 2016. Meritorious, not inclusive: The argument that a former member of one branch of the state is automatically disqualified from serving another branch is faulty. República, 10 May 2016

Mishra, Birendra Prasad. 2016. State funding for elections: Money and muscle. The Himalayan Times, 29 June 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. A fool's paradise: Discord awaits us if the educated public miss the big picture and voice personal prejudices as arguments. The Kathmandu Post, 12 May 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. A third people's movement: The Oli regime has begun to show signs similar to those of the waning days of Panchayat. The Kathmandu Post, 26 May 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. Fight the power: If independent institutions assert the way the NHRC has done, thorny issues will find an early resolution. The Kathmandu Post, 14 April 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. Glimmers of hope: Bhattarai's party alone can forge a common front with the Janajatis and Madhesis to unite the country. The Kathmandu Post, 23 June 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. Prosecution versus persecution: Dixit's arrest has gladdened some, angered others, and confused many. The Kathmandu Post, 28 April 2016

Mishra, Pramod. 2016. The passing of a maestro: Narrowing a genius's oeuvre to promote self-serving nationalism undermines his complex contributions. The Kathmandu Post, 9 June 2016

Morch, Maximilian. 2016. Patchy and leaky: While the earthquakes devastated the country, corruption greatly hampered relief efforts. República, 4 May 2016

Morris, Richard / Marzetti, Gail. 2016. Development achievements: In this bicentenary year, the exhibition Hatemalo helps us celebrate the things Nepal and UK have achieved together. The Kathmandu Post, 20 May 2016

Mulmi, Subin. 2016. Nationalism vs human rights: Nepal wants aid from the international community, but not criticism of its rights record. The Kathmandu Post, 24 May 2016

Nayak, Deepak Kumar. 2016. Nepal: Chronic Crises. SAIR, Volume 14, No. 47, May 23, 2016

Neopane, Abyaya. 2016. Competitive federalism: Provinces could make laws by tapping in to their comparative advantage. The Himalayan Times, 22 May 2016

Neupane, Sudarshan. 2016. Inclusion for the disabled: Development organisations need to open up their programmes for people with disabilities. The Kathmandu Post, 27 April 2016

Nirola, Ashita / Maru, Sheela / Chaudhary, Pushpa. 2016. Pregnancy and safety Respect the Nepali calendar. The Himalayan Times, 11 April 2016

Nyaichyai, Lila. 2016. Nepal-China Trans-border Railways. The Rising Nepal, 17 May 2016

Ojha, Hemant R. / Khatri, Dil. 2016. Talking about trading: The way things are, earning money from carbon trading seems to be a distant dream. The Kathmandu Post, 27 May 2016

Ojha, Hemant R. / Nightingale, Andrea J.. 2016. The Himalayan challenge: Tackling the complexities of the risks in the Himalayas requires a critical, adaptive and interactive governance approach. The Kathmandu Post, 10 June 2016

Pande, Sophia L.. 2016. Art and the earthquake: Where does art come in during a natural disaster when there are so many other needs to meet?. The Kathmandu Post, 23 April 2016

Pande, Sophia L.. 2016. Restoring the Panchmukhi Hanuman Temple: As the Nepali government struggles to define a game plan for how to proceed, the recently restored Panchmukhi Hanuman serves as a best practice model that future projects can learn from. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Pandey, Bikash. 2015. Track II – Nepal's pluralistic hydropower development post-Arun. SINHAS: Chautari Foundation Lecture 2015

Pandey, Geeta. 2016. Mountain people: The government should declare Karnali as a drought-prone area and adopt policies and programmes suitable for the region. The Kathmandu Post, 31 May 2016

Pandey, Seema. 2016. Mending fences: For the European Union, South Asia falls neither under its sphere of influence nor is it among its priority areas. República, 2 June 2016

Pandey, Sneha. 2016. Salvaging sewage: Given the right conditions, wastewater treatment can be made both profitable and environmentally conscious at the same time. República, 10 June 2016

Pandey, Sneha. 2016. The unwelcome guests of our times. República, 8 April 2016

Pandey, Swagat Raj. 2016. Peace and justice: It took a decade for transitional justice bodies to come into existence; This was a deliberate delay. República, 12 April 2016

Paneru, Yogendra P.. 2016. Putting into practice: Disputes over federalism show that the people are still struggling to understand it. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Pant, Bhubanesh. 2016. Enhancing financial access: Inclusive and sustainable growth. The Himalayan Times, 4 May 2016

Pant, Girish P.. 2016. Transfer of technology: Costs and benefits. The Himalayan Times, 6 May 2016

Pant, Laxman Datt. 2014. Not so free: Although Nepal recognises the right to information, journalists are not able to investigate issues properly. The Kathmandu Post, 3 May 2016

Parajuli, Anjita. 2016. Things are changing: The rate of child marriage has dropped, and the average age for marriage has gone up. The Kathmandu Post, 20 April 2016

Parajuli, John Narayan. 2016. State-driven spiritualism: Nepal cannot afford to be seen as a proxy for one or the other side in the battle for leadership of the Buddhist world between India and China. The Kathmandu Post, 21 May 2016

Parajuli, Lokranjan. 2016. Flawed category: Can the state have two definitions of family, one for imposing tax and another for providing compensation?. The Kathmandu Post, 26 May 2016

Paudel, Deepesh. 2016. Turn on, tune in: The Sabido syntax of storytelling is bringing a new wave in the radio drama scenario. The Kathmandu Post, 29 May 2016

Paudel, Shreya. 2016. What about class? It appears that Nepali political ideology has already arrived at its Fukuyamian 'end of history' when it comes to the economy. The Kathmandu Post, 28 May 2016

Paudel, Shreya. 2016. Why is the dominant ethnicity preserving the status quo? I wish the marginalised communities started to speak about economic class in the same breath as ethnicity. The Kathmandu Post. 16 April 2016

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2016. Dilemma of LDCs: Nepal should have graduated in 2001; It did not; Now the target year is 2022, but Nepal won't be able to graduate in that year either. República, 29 June 2016

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2016. Fooling us: It sounds like a cruel joke when Congress or any other party promises to address people's livelihood issues and to improve governance. República, 19 May 2016

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2016. International alert: The countries which are dissatisfied with the new constitution in Nepal face far graver crises than those facing Nepal. República, 11 April 2016

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2016. The citizenship debate: Nepal's citizenship debate is stuck in whether it should be guided by an overarching global norm or if certain people deserve special treatment. República, 9 May 2016

Paudyal, Mahabir. 2016. The difficult choice: Success of Federal Alliance will largely depend on how well it will push and establish broader national agendas. República, 26 April 2016

Paudyal, Rishiram. 2016. None of battered Sindhu rebuilt in a year. The Kathmandu Post, 27 April 2016

Pokharel, Anisha. 2016. Saving our birds: Nepal cannot always look to foreign experts to come and save its vulnerable birds. República, 21 May 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. Reorienting Nepal's Foreign Policy For Economic Development. The Rising Nepal, 7 May 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. Restructuring The National Planning Commission. The Rising Nepal, 23 April 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. Rethinking Nepal's Foreign Employment Policy. The Rising Nepal, 25 June 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. Unfolding Dynamics Of Kathmandu-centric Protests. The Rising Nepal, 21 May 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. University Education In Crisis. The Rising Nepal, 4 June 2016

Pokharel, Kushal. 2016. Utilising Remittance For Economic Growth. The Rising Nepal, 15 April 2016

Pokharel, Manish / Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2016. Changing times: Majority of jobs that our folks have been doing on foreign soil will soon be performed by robots. The Kathmandu Post, 3 April 2016

Pokharel, Manish / Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2016. Vox populi: Our cities will never go green until and unless we revamp the country's deeply flawed 'representative democracy'. The Kathmandu Post, 28 April 2016

Pokharel, Neetu / Niroula, Som. 2016. They are sufferers too: Women victims of sexual violence during the Maoist conflict must get due priority. The Kathmandu Post, 27 April 2016

Pokharel, Pramod Raj. 2016. More power to the people: The best loss reduction strategy is avoiding transmitting electricity over long distances. The Kathmandu Post, 3 June 2016

Pokharel, Pramod Raj. 2016. No power to the people: Many experts believe that the prolonged load-shedding in Nepal is a planned event. The Kathmandu Post, 6 April 2016

Pokharel, Ramesh. 2016. Challenges Of Agrarian Transformation. The Rising Nepal, 28 June 2008

Poudel, Bhoj Raj. 2016. One-way road to Nepal: China needs to clearly lay out how it would like to go about cementing its relationship with Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 25 May 2016

Poudel, Bhoj Raj. 2016. Sweet and sour: Oli's visit to China has been praised as historic and decried as mere showing off. The Kathmandu Post, 5 April 2016

Poudel, Yoga Nath. 2016. Bracing for the budget: The budget, instead of directing investments in the right direction, might contain a lot of unproductive populist plans. The Kathmandu Post, 27 May 2016

Pradhan, Krishna Man. 2016. Realigning justice: Implementing the constitution and consolidating democracy are not possible without a functional judiciary. The Kathmandu Post, 19 June 2016

Pun, Sher Bahadur. 2016. New threats: With the impending monsoon various kinds of vector-borne diseases loom large over Nepal. República, 14 June 2016

Rahman, Azera Parveen. 2016. A Different Kind Of Aftershock For Nepali Girls. The Rising Nepal, 5 April 2016

Rai, Ashok. 2016. Over 50 discriminatory clauses in constitution. Interview. República, 5 May 2016

Rai, Heema. 2016. Long walk to recovery: Last year's quakes seem to have exacerbated Nepal's water crisis. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Rai, Soni. 2016. Brewing Business: Lack of vision, planning, coordination and commitment is limiting the growth of coffee. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Rana, Madhukar Shamsheer Jang Bahadur. 2016. Reforming bureaucracy: Managerial civil service. The Himalayan Times, 16 June 2016

Rana, Pranaya SJB. 2016. Speak your mind: Hallmark of a democracy should be the ease with which it allows proliferation of ideas, however unpalatable. The Kathmandu Post, 4 May 2016

Rana, Pranaya SJB. 2016. The order of education: The SLC is but the culmination of 10 years of the same system, one designed to churn out students who are little more than automatons. The Kathmandu Post, 2 April 2016

Rana, Vivek S.. 2016. Economics of cyber security: It is important for businesses to think of cyber risks as business-related risks and not merely IT-related risks. The Kathmandu Post, 7 June 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. A Consensus Government For Enforcing Constitution. Kathmandu Metro, 8 May 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Birth Of A New Party. Kathmandu Metro, 1 June 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Budget For FY 2016 (2073) And Its Impact On Economy. Kathmandu Metro, 1 June 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Comments On Policies And Program Of Government For FY 2016 (2073). Kathmandu Metro, 14 May 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Current Situation of Nepalese Political Parties. Kathmandu Metro, 2 May 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. First Anniversary Of Devastating Quakes. Kathmandu Metro, 28 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Irregularities In State Expenditures And Loss To The Nation. Kathmandu Metro, 21 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Joint Statement Of EU Officials And Modi. Kathmandu Metro, 1 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Laying Foundation Of Airport In Pokhara. Kathmandu Metro, 16 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Marking National Press Day On the Anniversary Of Gorkhapatra. Kathmandu Metro, 12 May 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Prime Minister's Address To Nation. Kathmandu Metro, 18 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Radio Nepal Turned Sixty-six. Kathmandu Metro, 3 April 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. Remittances Don't Come Without Bloodshed. Kathmandu Metro, 24 June 2016

Ranjitkar, Siddhi B.. 2016. What Nepalese Newspapers Write. Kathmandu Metro, 20 June 2016

Rasmussen, Sune Engel. 2016. Where the streets have no men: the Nepalese town where women hold sway; Years of migration by men taking up jobs abroad have drained Bhamarpura of working-age men, leaving women to take the reins. The Kathmandu Post, 4 May 2016

Raut, Nirmal Kumar. 2016. Back in black: Blockade created favorable climate for unscrupulous traders to do more transactions off the official radar. República, 9 June 2016

Rawal, Narendra. 2016. Filling a vacuum: After 26 years of democracy, Nepal looks set to have a comprehensive national security strategy. The Kathmandu Post, 15 May 2016

Rayamajhi, Abhilasha. 2016. Have Indian tourists lost interest in Nepal?. The Himalayan Times, 19 June 2016

Rayamajhi, Abhilasha. 2016. Turning to domestic tourism: Despite huge potential domestic tourism remains untapped. The Himalayan Times, 22 May 2016

Regmi, Sandhya. 2016. Path of mindfulness: Buddha's teachings go beyond the formal concept of education that prevails in universities. The Kathmandu Post, 9 June 2016

Regmi, Sandhya. 2016. Pollution at your doorstep: Hemmed in by a generator and a disco, my house has turned into a gas and torture chamber. The Kathmandu Post, 15 May 2016

Regmi, Umesh Raj. 2016. Hello goodbye: Old teachers will get a warm send-off and a new batch will move in under the golden handshake. The Kathmandu Post, 10 June 2016

Regmi, Umesh Raj. 2016. Not so fast: The Education Ministry's directive on fee ceilings and basic standards has upset private schools. The Kathmandu Post, 29 April 2016

Rijal, Bicram. 2016. Broken links: Material rebuilding after a disaster needs to go hand in hand with the revamping of social and political arrangements. The Kathmandu Post, 19 May 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Civil Society In Nepal: Role In Democratisation Of The State. The Rising Nepal, 16 June 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Community Mediation Directives Should Take Effect Soon. The Rising Nepal, 28 April 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Community-based School Management: The Role Politics Plays. The Rising Nepal, 30 June 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Constitution Implementation: Commitment From Leadership Needed. The Rising Nepal, 26 May 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Dispute Resolution At Local Level: Constitution Lends Impetus To It. The Rising Nepal, 19 May 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Education Act Amendment: Focus Should Be On Quality. The Rising Nepal, 9 June 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Federal Constitution: Focus On Restructuring Education. The Rising Nepal, 21 April 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Non-formal Education: Tool For Civic Education. The Rising Nepal, 12 May 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Plan Performance In Nepal: Effective Implementation Needed. The Rising Nepal, 2 June 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Politics In Higher Education: Threat To Safe Academic Space. The Rising Nepal, 7 April 2016

Rijal, Mukti. 2016. Regulating Medical Services: Key To Curbing Unethical Practices. The Rising Nepal, 23 June 2016

Sah, Krishna Kumar. 2016. Poverty and gender: Households headed by females have a lower poverty rate than those headed by males. The Kathmandu Post, 3 May 2016

Sah, Ram Charitra. 2016. Lumbini at risk: Factories continue to be built at Buddha's birthplace posing an environmental threat. The Kathmandu Post, 17 May 2016

Sapkota, Chandan. 2016. Budget blues: Drastically increasing the budget without improving absorption capacity is reckless and shows a lack of accountability. The Kathmandu Post, 17 June 2016

Sapkota, Chandan. 2016. Symbolic or viable? Nepal needs serious homework to benefit from accords with China, including the important one on transit. The Kathmandu Post, 11 April 2016

Sapkota, Chandan. 2016. Unspent budget: Political instability and interference both at the planning and operational levels hinder timely completion of projects. The Kathmandu Post, 23 May 2016

Sapkota, Diwakar. 2016. Agro-forestry in Nepal Multiple benefits. The Himalayan Times, 12 May 2016

Sen, Amita P.. 2016. In praise of misfits: Spatial skills are particularly untapped in countries like Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 1 April 2016

Shachi, Sohara Mehroze. 2016. Budgeting for climate change: Climate finance for mitigation and adaptation is of paramount importance to countries such as Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 19 April 2016

Shah, Akanshya. 2016. Bungling on India: It is unfortunate the government has resorted to such petulance, in the process dealing a big blow to efforts to revitalize relations with India. República, 11 May 2016

Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2016. City of chaos: The total length of vehicles operating in Kathmandu Valley is greater than the length of its roads. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Shah, Bimal Pratap. 2016. Free the speech: We the citizens have to make sure laws of Nepal do not end up like draconian laws of totalitarian states like North Korea and Syria. República, 18 May 2016

Shah, Manish Bikram. 2016. Radio and poverty: Media will not be pro-poor unless they prioritise local poverty reduction issues and take ownership of the programmes. The Kathmandu Post, 28 June 2008

Shahi, Pragati. 2016. Building back better? Lack proper risk assessments of settlements in many of the worst affected areas are adding to vulnerability of the population, not lessening it. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Shahi, Pragati. 2016. Scientific forestry: Sustainable forest management in community forests is bearing its first fruits. The Kathmandu Post, 3 April 2016

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. Leveraging diaspora: Given South Asia's geopolitics, it is becoming more important to engage with the global community. The Kathmandu Post, 10 May 2016

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. Sinophobia revisited: Nepal needs to rethink how we can build a relationship with China—a nation we understand so little about. The Kathmandu Post, 12 April 2016

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. Space and the city: Managing urbanisation does not seem to be a concern in the country; While the government is converting villages into municipalities at a rapid pace, it also needs to look at strong governance structures in these municipalities. The Kathmandu Post, 21 June 2016

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. There is hope: Cities and towns that have a large number of development organisations have created great rent-seeking models. The Kathmandu Post, 24 May 2016

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. Thinking big: We need to realise that we will never be able to compete in low-value, high-volume products. Nepal

Shakya, Sujeev. 2016. Thinking global: People judge the success of politicians based on how their consumption patterns changed after coming into power. The Kathmandu Post, 7 June 2016

Sharma, Ajapa. 2016. A case for history: Historical project is critical in that it demands more from the past than the present is willing to concede. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Sharma, Dharani Kumar. 2016. Always pushed around: It seems the political parties, both ruling and agitating, see the Nepali people as just stepping stones to power. The Kathmandu Post, 8 June 2016

Sharma, Hari. 2016. Attention policymakers: Our education system is still imparting skills taught to our forefathers or grandfathers. The Kathmandu Post, 3 April 2016

Sharma, Jeevan Raj. 2016. Documenting torture: In the current institutional practices of documentation, the poor and the marginalized can't even report their human right violation. República, 23 May 2016

Sharma, Keshab. 2016. Go local: The NRA has proposed 17 different residential building models for post-quake rebuilding. Most of these models are defective. República, 19 April 2016

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2016. Bhattarai's new challenges: You can do a lot of things on paper but when it comes to people, it is always trust that matters. The Kathmandu Post, 19 June 2016

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2016. Divided we are falling: Whether politicians will tolerate unity among the civil servants remains to be seen. The Kathmandu Post, 5 June 2016

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2016. Genuine issues: Unless Madhesi leaders address the real problems in the Tarai, people's faith in them will not be restored. The Kathmandu Post, 15 May 2016

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2016. Moment of reckoning: Political parties are not particularly known for their wisdom of moderation and mediation. The Kathmandu Post, 1 May 2016

Sharma, Khagendra Nath. 2016. Visiting south and north: Nepal has to acquire a fair amount of knowledge about Chinese cultural nuances and diplomatic norms. The Kathmandu Post, 10 April 2016

Sharma, Namrata. 2016. Big budget: Implementation needed. The Himalayan Times, 3 June 2016

Sharma, Rupak D.. 2016. 22pc of population in middle-class category: Atypical structural transformation a hindrance to pull out people from vulnerable group. The Himalayan Times, 30 June 2016

Sharma, Rupak D.. 2016. Capital spending low as only 7pc civil servants perform duties well. The Himalayan Times, 26 May 2016

Sharma, Suresh. 2016. Listen to the people: Any political transition without broad-based agreement will be counterproductive. The Kathmandu Post, 17 April 2016

Sheppard, Philip. 2016. Building better: We should improve rehabilitation services and build accessible infrastructures. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Shrestha, Aditya Man. 2016. Nepal in 2045: Contrary to Indian expectations, Nepal is likely, when pushed to the wall, to turn to China and even have a military pact with it. República, 28 April 2016

Shrestha, Aditya Man. 2016. Travel warning: The way Pushpa Kamal Dahal exploded at the possibility of prosecution suggests that neither will justice be done nor will it seem to be done. República, 17 May 2016

Shrestha, Ashesh. 2016. Free mobility must be ensured: The basis for reaping the economic benefits of federalism. The Himalayan Times, 5 June 2016

Shrestha, Binita. 2016. Talk therapy: Gender-based violence in Nepal is deeply rooted in social norms, values and cultural practices. República, 1 June 2016

Shrestha, Dristy. 2016. Street smart: Planned cities in the mid-hills should not repeat the mistakes of car-centric Kathmandu. The Kathmandu Post, 14 April 2016

Shrestha, Hari Prasad. 2016. Do it yourself: The government must look to build medium and large power projects to meet internal demand on its own. República, 7 June 2016

Shrestha, Hari Prasad. 2016. New directions: India does not mind connecting with China, but Nepal's linkages with the Chinese have always been a matter of concern for it. The Kathmandu Post, 19 April 2016

Shrestha, Kripa. 2016. Pura Vida: As the tourism industry looks to rebuild from what has been a devastating year following the quakes, the best foot forward might just be a step closer to home; one that takes the industry back to nature. The Kathmandu Post, 9 April 2016

Shrestha, Narayan. 2016. Post-Paris climate talks: Nepal needs to fit its adaptation priorities into world strategies to get global funding. The Kathmandu Post, 22 April 2016

Shrestha, Prithvi Man. 2016. Dismayed donors: The outpouring of support a year ago has unfortunately been matched by disappointment a year later. The Kathmandu Post, 24 April 2016

Shrestha, Raju / Bautam, Bidur / Sharma, Dharam Raj. 2016. Energy and synergy: The Budhi Gandaki project can be given a boost with water from the Trishuli River. The Kathmandu Post, 5 June 2016

Shrestha, Ramesh. 2016. Mind your own business: Nepali politicians have managed to constantly block long-term socio-economic development of the country. The Kathmandu Post, 4 April 2016

Shrestha, Shrijana. 2016. The fight to end child marriage: Nepal outlawed child marriage in 1963 but child marriage is still rampant in various districts. República, 13 May 2016

Shrestha, Sumeera. 2016. Widow woes: Widows are discounted in statistics, neglected by authorities and lost within the homogeneous women population. The Kathmandu Post, 23 June 2016

Shrestha, Uttam Babu. 2016. Let's fix it: We need to understand our biophysical sensitivity and take timely actions to address environmental problems. The Kathmandu Post, 12 April 2016

Sijapati, Alisha. 2016. A city divided: Last year's earthquake—that forced most Kathmandu's residents to live in tents and makeshift tarp shelters—has not helped the city empathise with the deplorable conditions of its squatter communities. The Kathmandu Post, 16 April 2016

Simkhada, Nav Raj. 2016. On the brink: The degrading standard of cooperatives in Nepal is largely due to lack of regulations. The Kathmandu Post, 5 April 2016

Simkhada, Nav Raj. 2016. Poor show: Nepal has not been able to make sustained progress in bringing down the poverty rate. The Kathmandu Post, 29 April 2016

Singh, Anjam. 2016. Invisible work: With changing gender relations, unpaid care work should now be given the attention it deserves. The Kathmandu Post, 21 April 2016

Singh, Binodkumar. 2016. Troubles Persist. SAIR, Volume 14, No. 41, April 11, 2016

Singh, Jaspal. 2016. Saving Sirisiya: We had identified some industries as polluters of this river and recommended actions against them; Nothing was done. República, 11 April 2016

Singh, S. Binodkumar. 2016. Dilemmas of Transitional Justice. SAIR, Volume 14, No. 51, June 20, 2016

Strasheim, Julia / Bogati, Subindra. 2016. Nepal's Quest for Federalism: A Driver of New Violence. GIGA Focus Asia 1

Subedi, Abhi. 2016. Great visitors: It is always very productive to be awed by history as long as we know how creatively we understand its human side. The Kathmandu Post, 15 May 2016

Subedi, Abhi. 2016. Jang's nostalgia: King Mahendra had said he did not believe communism would come to Nepal by riding a car. The Kathmandu Post, 1 May 2016

Subedi, Abhi. 2016. Weakening intelligentsia: The SAARC created a certain form of elitism that was happy to stay in the world of power. The Kathmandu Post, 17 April 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Creation of CPN-Maoist Centre: Can It Revive Maoist Movement?. The Rising Nepal, 29 May 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Emotionally Unified Nepal Is Here!. The Rising Nepal, 26 June 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Has NC Lost Ideological Compass?. The Rising Nepal, 22 May 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. India-EU joint statement: Smacks of Uncouth opportunism. The Rising Nepal, 3 April 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Indian Paranoia And Nepal's Sovereignty. The Rising Nepal, 15 May 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Keeping One-upmanship At Bay. The Rising Nepal, 19 June 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Maoist Centre Heading For Brinkmanship?. The Rising Nepal, 5 June 2016

Subedi, Ritu Raj. 2016. Say No To Mules And Meddlers. The Rising Nepal, 10 April 2016

Sugden, Fraser. 2016. Migration and rural change: The success stories of the few often distract attention from the hard reality for the majority. The Kathmandu Post, 5 April 2016

Sunar, Giri Bahadur. 2016. Forget them not: On first anniversary quake victims are waiting for government support and donors are frustrated. República, 23 April 2016

Tandukar, Surendra. 2016. Capital expenditure a national disgrace: Once again poor performance and inefficiency will go unanswered and unpunished. The Himalayan Times, 17 April 2016

Taylor, Marissa. 2016. The discharge of history. The Kathmandu Post, 9 April 2016

Teerink, Rensje. 2016. Natural disaster risks: Regional cooperation is vital. The Himalayan Times, 6 June 2016

Teplitz, Alaina B.. 2016. Time for action: To make Nepal a more attractive destination for foreign investment, the government of Nepal must be ready to take serious steps. República, 26 May 2016

Thakur, Atul K.. 2016. Big country, small country: Nepal's political crisis has to be resolved internally, not by leaders in Delhi or Patna. The Kathmandu Post, 3 April 2016

Thakur, Atul K.. 2016. I have not been able to stop being amused by the 'conspiracy theories' found in Nepal. The Kathmandu Post, 22 May 2016

Thapa, Chiran Jung. 2016. The new face of terror: Risks to Nepal. The Himalayan Times, 27 June 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. A journey of a thousand miles: We can only hope that the government will now adopt a more confident approach to reconstruction. The Kathmandu Post, 21 April 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. A long and lacklustre reign: If there was one thing Nepal got during Birendra's 18 years as the supreme monarch, it was a number of slogans. The Kathmandu Post, 2 June 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. Foreign lives, Nepali bodies: It is a shame that Nepal has not signed any of the treaties relevant to migrant workers. The Kathmandu Post, 30 June 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. Give migrants their due: The least the government could do is make migration a pleasant experience, at least while departing and arriving. The Kathmandu Post, 16 June 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. Red chameleons: Return of Ram Bahadur Thapa and his followers could signal the possibility of Prachanda turning slightly to the left. The Kathmandu Post, 19 May 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. Testing times: General view is if late-night mugging can lead to a good performance, other performances become immaterial. The Kathmandu Post, 7 April 2016

Thapa, Deepak. 2016. Two-way traffic: One way to reduce the idiocy of drivers is to ensure that the rules are equally sensible. The Kathmandu Post, 5 May 2016

Thapa, Gopal Bahadur. 2016. Unqualified hacks: Foreign Ministry has been reduced to a mere tool to be used at the discretion of powerful political masters. The Kathmandu Post, 11 May 2016

Thapa, Hari Bahadur. 2016. Hydropower – No better alternative. The Rising Nepal, 2 April 2016

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2016. Lost In Fog. The Rising Nepal, 13 April 2016

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2016. Mired In Controversy. The Rising Nepal, 27 April 2016

Thapa, Hira Bahadur. 2016. Revering Senior Citizens. The Rising Nepal, 11 May 2016

Thapa, Umesh. 2016. Inflationary Pressure On Budget. The Rising Nepal, 4 June 2016

Timalsena, Prakash. 2016. Barpak, a year later. The Kathmandu Post, 23 April 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. A+ SLC Result And New Problems. The Rising Nepal, 20 June 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Birth Of Maoist Centre And Two Trends. The Rising Nepal, 23 May 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Insecure Leftist Coalition. The Rising Nepal, 6 June 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Naya Shakti And The Old Legacy. The Rising Nepal, 13 June 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Political Heat Wave From The South. The Rising Nepal, 9 May 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Possibility Of Unity Of Maoist Parties. The Rising Nepal, 18 April 2016

Tiwari, Nandalal. 2016. Rule Of Anarchy. The Rising Nepal, 27 June 2016

Tulachan, Pradeep Man. 2016. The cooperative revolution: Naya Shakti aims to create economic opportunities for the youth by adding over four million jobs in next 10- 15 years. República, 9 April 2016

Tuladhar, Adarsha. 2016. Baby steps: A government notice during the shortage of cooking gas illustrates the failure of all parties committed to open data, RTI and good governance. República, 27 April 2016

UNFPA. 2016. Nepal earthquake – 12 month progress report. UNFPA, April 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Consensual Politics, A Victim Now?. The Rising Nepal, 18 May 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Dr. Bhattarai And New Party. The Rising Nepal, 15 June 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Elections Will Ensure Statute's Merit. The Rising Nepal, 29 June 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Friends Turn Foes. The Rising Nepal, 8 June 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Harmful Knee-jerk Reaction?. The Rising Nepal, 6 April 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Madhesis, Congress Unite Against Government. The Rising Nepal, 13 April 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Opposition Ups Ante Against Government. The Rising Nepal, 4 May 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Unity Among Maoist Leaders. The Rising Nepal, 25 May 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. What Goes Around, Comes Around. The Rising Nepal, 11 May 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. What Led To Delay In Reconstruction?. The Rising Nepal, 27 April 2016

Upadhyay, Narayan. 2016. Will Congress Join Government?. The Rising Nepal, 20 April 2016

Upadhyay, Surya Nath. 2016. Who owns water? Commercial sale of water without a license is illegal. Similarly, no one, not even a community, can occupy or hold any portion of water. República, 28 May 2016

Upreti, Bishnu Raj. 2016. Full of potential: Women's engagement in high-value export-led agriculture has contributed to their social, economic and political empowerment. República, 8 June 2016

Upreti, Pratyush Nath. 2016. Innovative minds: Govt should make local entrepreneurs aware about the role of IP in protecting their intellectual creation. The Kathmandu Post, 26 April 2016

US Department of State. 2016. Nepal 2015 Human Rights Report. Department of State

Vallese, Giulia. 2016. One year on: We must protect the dignity of women and girls and focus on empowering them to play a role in rebuilding their lives. República, 20 April 2016

Verma, Asmita. 2016. Some men never change: Top male politicians are trying to undo the rights given to women by the constitution. The Kathmandu Post, 24 June 2016

Verma, Asmita. 2016. Too young to marry: Political leaders must move to end child marriage by considering it a national issue. The Kathmandu Post, 10 April 2016

Viswas, Asit K. / Hartley, Kris. 2016. One year later: If an historic disaster failed to drive progress in fundamental areas, one is bound to wonder if there will ever be hope for Nepal. The Kathmandu Post,

6 June 2016

Wagle, Achyut. 2016. Three's a crowd: Nepal's dream of becoming a bridge between China and India may remain elusive; India's presumptive yet perennial allegation that Nepal often played the 'China card' ultimately proved self-fulfilling, albeit with the script a bit altered. The Kathmandu Post, 27 June 2016

Wagle, Geja Sharma. 2016. Convergence point: It is vital that our parties have common understanding of national interests despite their other differences. República, 12 May 2016

Wagle, Geja Sharma. 2016. Rethinking security: Our security policy should be redefined in line with the concept of human security and federal democratic system. República, 25 April 2016

Wagle, Tribhuvan Chandra. 2016. Opportunities, Challenges Before NC. The Rising Nepal, 16 April 2016

Yadav, Anita. 2016. Rainbow country: Promoting cultural diversity is important as it will lead to sustainable development. The Kathmandu Post, 8 May 2016

Yami, Hisila. 2016. How new is Naya Shakti Nepal? Constitution should be neither celebrated nor condemned; we need to implement it, but simultaneously make it more inclusive. The Kathmandu Post, 12 June 2016

Yami, Hisila. 2016. Meaningless unity: Prachanda was always shifting between Bhattarai and Kiran, looking to balance the two to prolong his stay in power. República, 26 May 2016